MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director For Administration

FROM:

Chairman, Fine Arts Commission

SUBJECT: Art for the New Building

1. I was informed recently by Ms. Marilyn Farley, manager of the General Services Administration (GSA) Art In Architecture program, that one of the artists that we had selected to bid on art for the new building has declined to submit a proposal. GSA is now consulting with the National Endowment for the Arts (NEA) to see if they will reconvene the panel to select another artist.

2. The artist who declined to participate is Mr. Matt Mullican, the one nominee who was selected principally to develop a graphic motif that could be used inside the building. There were no other nominees for this particular aspect of the art acquisition.

3. If we hear from GSA that the NEA does not want to reactivate their panel, I will get back with you regarding other options. Of course if they will reopen their process, there is no particular problem.
